ABOUT ME

I'm Imadh Ahmed, a BSc Information Technology undergraduate at Rajarata University of Sri Lanka, with a strong passion for Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning. I am deeply driven by the challenge of developing intelligent systems that solve real-world problems through data-driven insights and automation. Known for my commitment to excellence and continuous learning, I actively seek opportunities to apply my knowledge in practical, impactful ways. My goal is to contribute meaningfully to the advancement of AI and make a lasting difference in the tech industry.
